

THE DOCTRINES OF THE BIBLE: SOTERIOLOGY 5: THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

THE PURPOSE, PLAN, AND METHOD OF GOD

Soteriology (Thiessen, 1949) is the Biblical doctrine of the person of Jesus Christ and God's plan for the salvation of mankind through His Son. This includes the entire scope of Jesus Christ, from His pre-incarnate state (before being born as a human being), His short life on Earth, through His ascension to heaven and His ultimate return.

THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

While on the Earth Jesus promised the disciples that after His departure, He would not let them on their own, but would send the Holy Spirit to remain with them forever. The Holy Spirit was already at work long before the outpouring as mentioned in Acts, but, as part of God's progressive revelation, more of the Holy Spirit is revealed and made available to us.

The Holy Spirit is fully God, is part of the Trinity, and is a Person. Personal pronouns are used to describe Him. Note the use of the definite article the: He is not a spirit; He is the Spirit. How does the work of the Holy Spirit relate to the salvation of man? How does His work relate to the world and to Jesus Christ?

IN CREATION

The work of the Holy Spirit in terms of the entire world is seen first in creation and the preservation thereof. We first read of the Holy Spirit when Genesis describes in chapter 1:

<sup>2</sup>And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. – Genesis 1:2

From the first time we read of the creation of the Earth, the Holy Spirit was involved. Many descriptions relate to the Holy Spirit breathing on people and breathing life into them.

<sup>6</sup>By the word of the Lord were the heavens made, and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. – Psalms 33:6

The Holy Spirit is also responsible for the preservation of creation. This is seen in Isaiah:

<sup>7</sup>The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it: – Isaiah 40:7

The Trinity never operate in isolation and the verse is clear the Holy Spirit is tasked with acting in the lives of every person.

The Holy Spirit restrains evil and we see this Paul's letter to the Thessalonians in which he outlines what is going to happen in the last days:

<sup>6</sup>And now ye know what withholdeth him that he might be revealed in his time. – 2 Thessalonians 2:6

When you read the text in its context, starting with verse one through eight, we see that it is the Holy Spirit that currently prevents the evil of the coming antichrist to be revealed. Once the rapture has removed the church, the work of the Holy Spirit will cease, although He will still be present, since God is omnipresent. Once he does not convince man of their sin anymore, the evil coming from man knows no bounds.

IN THE REVELATION OF THE BIBLE

The Holy Spirit is the author of the Word of God and is also the interpreter to man so that we can understand the written or preached Word. While it is true that the Bible was written by people, and they had their own style of writing, using their own known experience, the Holy Spirit moved them to write and thus there are no errors in the Bible as recorded originally. That there are mistakes found in various translations today, is because those mistakes were made either unknowingly, usually due to language differences which are acceptable, or intentionally, which is the result of twisting the truth. Paul tells Timothy that the entire Word of God was inspired by the Holy Spirit:

<sup>16</sup>All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: <sup>17</sup>That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. – 2 Timothy 3:16-17

Peter tells how men were moved by the Spirit who spoke from God:

<sup>20</sup>Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. <sup>21</sup>For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. – 2 Peter 1:21

The Holy Spirit ensures that the Word of God is understood by man. It is the Holy Spirit that gives us a spirit of wisdom. We do not get to understand the Word if it were not for the Holy Spirit working in our lives, even when we unbelievers.

IN THE LIFE OF JESUS CHRIST

It is evident that Jesus Christ never acted on His own or in isolation. In everything He said or did, the Father and the Holy Spirit were present, represented, and inferred. First, He was conceived of the Holy Spirit:

<sup>18</sup>Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. – Matthew 1:18

The Holy Spirit anointed Him at His baptism and at the same time, the Father spoke from heaven:

<sup>16</sup>And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: <sup>17</sup>And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. – Matthew 3:16-17

The Holy Spirit was implied when His words on the cross were that He gave his Spirit over to the Father:

<sup>46</sup>And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost. – Luke 23:46

Paul describes it like this:

<sup>11</sup>But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. – Romans 8:11

To his Jewish audience (the Hebrews), Paul uses the example of the passover lamb, which they understood very well, to show that the Holy Spirit is actively involved in the regeneration of a person:

<sup>14</sup>How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? – Hebrews 9:14

Before His ascension, He told the disciples that once He had gone to heaven, He would send the Holy Spirit to be with the disciples, and indeed all believers, forever:

<sup>7</sup>Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. – John 16:7

He also breathed on the disciples and they received the Holy Spirit:

<sup>22</sup>And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: – John 20:21

IN THE LIVES OF UNBELIEVERS

The Holy Spirit also works in the lives of unbelievers, which we all were at some point. He convicts the unbeliever of their sin. Without this conviction, there would be no way the unbeliever could be aware of their sin. The Holy Spirit works in the lives of unbelievers when they are still hardened sinners. Jesus tells His disciples that the Holy Spirit will testify of Him. John states that Jesus was the true light that enlightens man, aware of his sin, to turn to the Saviour:

<sup>9</sup>That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh to the world. – John 1:9

IN THE LIVES OF BELIEVERS

It is impossible for a believer not to be empowered by the Holy Spirit. The gift that Jesus left for us is His Holy Spirit that He said would be with us forever.

AT THE TIME OF CONVERSION

The Holy Spirit convines the fallen man of his sin:

<sup>7</sup>Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. <sup>8</sup>And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: <sup>9</sup>Of sin, because they believe not on me; <sup>10</sup>Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; <sup>11</sup>Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. – John 16:7-11

When this person accepts his fallen stated and repents, the Holy Spirit regenerates him:

<sup>4</sup>But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, <sup>5</sup>Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; <sup>6</sup>Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; <sup>7</sup>That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. – Titus 3:4-7

Once we have been regenerated, the Holy Spirit fills our lives, and lives within us. We become a temple of the Holy Spirit:

<sup>17</sup>Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. – John 14:17

The Holy Spirit baptises us into the body of Jesus Christ, the church:

<sup>11</sup>I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire: <sup>12</sup>Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire. – Matthew 3:11-12

Finally, the Holy Spirit seals us. To be sealed means that we are kept pure and reserved and children of God, saved by grace and through faith. We have the security that we are owned by God and that eternal life is guaranteed:

<sup>13</sup>In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, <sup>14</sup>Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. – Ephesians 1:13-14

THE ONGOING WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

During our lives, the Holy Spirit fills us:

<sup>17</sup>Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. <sup>18</sup>And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; <sup>19</sup>Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; <sup>20</sup>Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; <sup>21</sup>Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. – Ephesians 5:17-21

He guides and leads us:

<sup>16</sup>This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. <sup>17</sup>For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. <sup>18</sup>But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. – Galatians 5:16-18

He teaches us:

<sup>20</sup>But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. <sup>27</sup>But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. – 1 John 2:20 and 27

He empowers the believer to overcome the onslaughts of the devil:

<sup>13</sup>For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. – Romans 8:13

The Holy Spirit gives us spiritual gifts:

<sup>4</sup>Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. <sup>5</sup>And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. <sup>6</sup>And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. <sup>7</sup>But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. <sup>8</sup>For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; <sup>9</sup>To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; <sup>10</sup>To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: <sup>11</sup>But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. <sup>12</sup>For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. <sup>13</sup>For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. – 1 Corinthians 12:4-13

Finally, He intercedes for us with the Father:

<sup>28</sup>Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. – Romans 8:26

CONCLUSION

This concludes our study of the Holy Spirit as He relates to the study of soteriology. We have looked at the preincarnate Christ; who then came in the flesh as man; who died for the sins of all people; and promised never to leave us on our own, but sent His Holy Spirit to be with us forever.

In the following lessons, we will cover the topics of conversion, regeneration, justification, sanctification, and perseverance.
